7.11.12

Since writing to you my D.O. letter No 99 of 4 & 12 I have heard from Mr Colton once again in the matter of the insurance premium & the pair in the case containing the Statue. and he now writes to say that there has been a mistake the amount claimes which ought to have been £107/- and not £69.4.0

as stated in the pistmistance.
This means that a sum of £37.16.0 is still due to the Insurance Agents, and that payment of that amount to them has the arranges now.
Enclosed Extract of letter from Mr. Colton to me. as also copy of 17.10.12

of letter of 8. 10. 12 from Messrs Dickson & Co. Lawson will speak for themselves in the matter. I have submitted them to His Highness and he desires me to say that he would be obliged if you would kindly have early orders issued to the Comptroller about the settlement of this account. Messrs Dickson & Co's account is sent herewith in original to facilitate disposal of matter.

Yours Sincerely

P. Rajagopalachariar

W.R. Colton Esq., A.R.A.,

Kensington.

Dear Mr. Colton,

I find that a most annoying blunder has been made with reference to the insurance of His Royal Highness the Maharaja of Mysore's Statue, during my holidays.

On hearing from you that the amount of the premium was to our credit at Messrs Coutts Bank, I sent round, and I found that the amount to our credit was only £69-4-0 whereas the proper amount of the insurance premium as you know, is £107. On enquiring why this amount only had been remitted, I find ~~on~~ reference to our Typist's shorthand book, that it was a blunder in working out the amount of the premium.

We shall be much obliged if you will put the matter through to the proper quarter, and explain how much we regret the mistake, and ask them to kindly remit us the balance.

Thanking you in anticipation.

We remain,
Faithfully, yours,
Sd/ Arthur Dicksee.
